Preview: This week's VICE Sports Arena Football One Game of the Week features the second-place SW Kansas Storm (5-3) traveling to Billings to take on the Outlaws (3-4), currently in fifth place. Both teams are in the thick of the AF1 playoff race, striving to be one of four teams that will compete for the Arena Football Championship.

The Storm are coming off a bye after beating the Outlaws 49-31 at home two weeks ago. Jalen Morton, their MVP-contending quarterback, ranks among AF1 leaders in multiple offensive categories and has returned from a short stint with the UFL's Birmingham Stallions. Storm WRs Demarius Washington (454) and Shiloh Flanagan (418) are among league leaders in receiving yards, ranking second and fifth, respectively. On defense, DB Michael Lawson's 56 tackles rank first, and his four interceptions are tied for second, while teammate Dontra Matthews' 33 tackles rank fourth.

The Outlaws come into Saturday's game after routing Washington 69-10 last week. New QB Malik Henry had a big day, going 15-20 for 181 yards, passing for six TDs and rushing for one. Fellow QB Brad Wingle went 2-3 for 18 yards and one TD pass. WR Darius Prince caught six passes, four for TDs. Billings played strong defensively, holding the Wolfpack to just 10 points, bolstered by four interceptions, including two by DB Justice King. Several Outlaws are among the league's offensive leaders. Wingle ranks fourth in passing yards (918), TD passes (16), and total yards (966). Henry ranks second with 181 passing yards/game and third with 187 total yards/game. Shawn McFarland ranks fifth with 102 yards rushing and second with 34 rushing yards/game. Prince ranks second in receiving yards/game (87.5) and also averages 2.0 TDs/game.
