Preview: This week's VICE Sports Arena Football One Game of the Week features the playoff-bound SW Kansas Storm hosting the struggling Washington Wolfpack.

The Storm took down the Billings Outlaws on Saturday 65-56 in an offensive thriller of a game. Despite 31 hours spent traveling by bus last weekend, they took everything the Outlaws threw at them. Head Coach Gary Thomas was pleased with his team's performance and how prepared his players were. "All you can do is formulate a game plan based on how you think the game will play out and try and execute that game plan," Coach Thomas said. "That's exactly what we did in a tough environment against a good football team on the road." The Storm turn their focus to Washington this week. The Wolfpack might have the worst record in the league, but you won't find Coach Thomas taking the game lightly. "This is a big game for us," he said. "I still don't think six wins gets you in the playoffs. The seventh win, I feel, gets us into the playoffs." The Storm are on track to host a playoff game as the number two seed, if the playoffs started today. SW Kansas QB Jalen Morton is having a stellar season as one of the league leaders in several offensive categories: 299 yards rushing and 12 rushing TDs (1st); 1,627 yards passing and 1,926 offensive yards (2nd); and 180.8 average passing yards/game and 28 TD passes (3rd). Right now, the Wolfpack, at 2-7, are mired in last place with the league's worst record. They're coming off a 52-20 loss to the Oregon Lightning, their third straight defeat. DL Chei Hill, who leads the league with 10 sacks, is a bright spot on defense.
