Preview: BKB makes its North-West England debut on July 5 at the Hideout in Bolton. Two of the sport's most accomplished, talented, undefeated, and outspoken fighters face off in the main event for the BKB Super Lightweight championship when Harry "The Hitman" Gigliotti defends his title against Kallum "Skull Crusher" Skhane. Gigliotti (4-0, 3 KOs) of Haverhill, Mass., USA, was the 2012 New England Junior Olympic champ, 2013 New England Golden Gloves runner-up, 2021 New England Welterweight Champion, and 2023 ABF Atlantic Super Lightweight Champ. He won the inaugural BKB Super Lightweight World championship in October in Leeds, UK, and successfully defended it this past February. Skhane (2-0, 2 KOs) of Blaengwynfi, Wales is a veteran of 75 amateur boxing bouts and a former British and five-time Welsh boxing champion. In the co-main event, one of the sport's best and a veteran of 18 bare knuckle fights, BKB Hall of Famer Scott McHugh, looks to stop Liam Howell in a Super Welterweight showdown.
