Preview: BKB Bare Knuckle Boxing returns to Denver, Colorado's Stockyards Event Center on Saturday, August 16 for BKB 44: Denver Brawl V, broadcasting live on VICE TV in the US and Canada. Headlining the card will be a matchup between two local world champions when BKB Lightweight Champ Paty Juarez defends her title against BKB Super Lightweight Champion Khortni Kamyron in a rematch of their BYB 31 showdown (as Kamyron looks to become BKB's first two-division women's champion).

In the co-main event, BKB Welterweight champ Javon Wright moves up a weight class to face 5-2 Super Welterweight Henry Williams. Plus, UFC and Bellator veteran Bubba McDaniel makes his BKB debut against a 25-year-old with nine bare knuckle fights under his belt, Zion Tomlinson. Former bare knuckle boxing Bantamweight champion Alberto Blas makes his BKB debut against 6-3 MMA pro and PFL veteran Ruel Panales of the Philippines. Tommy Turner is a two-time title challenger, having fought two of the best bare knuckle boxers ever, LT Nelson and Barrie Jones. He will face undefeated hometown favorite Michael Santos. And UK veteran and former title challenger Kevin Greenwood makes his US debut.
